IN BRIEF

An exceptional 18th-century property, a former farmhouse completely renovated by an architect, combining authenticity, generous proportions, and luxurious, contemporary décor, in the immediate vicinity of Thoiry Zoo.

Built on 3,427 m² of land, this rare property comprises a spacious main house and two outbuildings, offering great potential for a bed and breakfast business or for accommodating a large family. It features approximately twenty rooms, including ten suites, arranged around a main living room of approximately 130 m² with a magnificent fireplace.

The exterior includes an interior courtyard with parking, a Japanese garden with a waterfall, a heated swimming pool with a pool house, and a pétanque court, all in a peaceful setting, yet close to schools, shops, and public transport. A property steeped in history, it was once the filming location for a

DESCRIPTION

Featured in the iconic French comedy film Les Visiteurs (1993) — an internationally acclaimed box-office hit directed by Jean-Marie Poiré, telling the story of a medieval knight and his squire who are transported through time to modern-day France — this remarkable estate offers not only exceptional prestige but also a unique cinematic heritage.

This exceptional property offers a luxurious and serene lifestyle, where tranquility and harmony blend seamlessly. Its beautifully landscaped Japanese-inspired garden is a true work of art, captivating with its peaceful and contemplative atmosphere. The heated swimming pool, complete with a pool house, along with a pétanque court, creates the perfect setting for relaxing moments with family and friends.

The main residence is gracefully arranged around a magnificent 125 sqm reception room, enhanced by exposed beams, original terracotta floor tiles, and an authentic period fireplace dating back to the property's origins. Flooded with natural light through large floor-to-ceiling windows opening onto the garden, this spectacular space benefits from impressive ceiling heights, creating a remarkable sense of volume and grandeur.

The property unfolds into two distinct wings.

First Wing:

An elegant 11 sqm entrance hall sets the tone and leads into a stunning living room distinguished by its generous ceiling height and its historic fireplace, a true centerpiece of the home. A marble staircase ascends to the upper floor, where two superb bedrooms are located:

A 26 sqm bedroom with adjoining office space and shower room.

An exceptional 67 sqm double suite with its own shower room, offering rare proportions...
