IN BRIEF

Located in the heart of the popular market town of Pré-en-Pail, this charming and fully furnished town house with courtyard, and the convenience of being within walking distance of all amenities is definitely not one to be missed.

Close to the Mont des Avaloirs, the highest point in the north-west of France, making it ideal for lovers of countryside walks, cycling, and outdoor activities. The property is also close to the VéloScénie cycle route, which runs from Paris to Mont-Saint-Michel, making this an excellent location for cycling enthusiasts.

The larger town of Alençon is just 30 minutes away by car, with direct train links to Paris and Le Mans, while the Caen ferry port is approximately 1.5 hours away.

This property makes a perfect holiday home, rental investment, or permanent residence. It benefits from oil central heating and mains drainage.
