IN BRIEF

Located in the very heart of Perpignan, on the highly sought-after Place de la République, this exceptional apartment of over 159 sqm located on the second floor, impresses with its period character and generous volumes. It features three large interconnecting reception rooms, enhanced by impressive ceiling heights, original mouldings and wood panelling, solid oak parquet flooring, and Haussmann-style fireplaces with balconies overlooking the square. Dual-aspect and filled with natural light, the apartment also benefits from a glass atrium and a central light well.

Its layout offers excellent potential to be reconfigured into a three-bedroom apartment, while also being perfectly suited to residential or professional use (offices, liberal professions, showroom), in a prime central location.

DESCRIPTION

Located in the heart of Perpignan, a vibrant southern French city close to the Mediterranean and the Pyrenees, this exceptional apartment enjoys a prime position on the lively, pedestrian Place de la République, surrounded by cafés, shops and restaurants.

The 2nd floor apartment is accessed via a beautiful entrance hallway with a glazed light well, providing abundant natural light throughout.

It offers three elegant interconnecting reception rooms (24 m², 24 m² and 22 m²), each featuring a marble fireplace, solid oak flooring, high ceilings and French doors opening onto individual balconies overlooking the square. One reception room includes an en-suite balneo bath and a separate WC. Additional spaces include a storage room, WC, shower room, two further interconnecting rooms with original cement tile flooring (20 m² with built-in cupboard and 22 m²), a spa bathroom with treatment room (11 m²) and a laundry room (4 m²). This rare property offers excellent potential as a prestigious residence or professional/commercial space (offices, showroom, liberal profession).

Secure paid parking is available to book long term at the nearby underground car parking facility.
