IN BRIEF

Ideally located close to shops and public transport, this character townhouse combines period charm with generous volumes and excellent natural light. The main house offers comfortable family living, complemented by an independent 40 m² garden-level living space — ideal for a large family, rental income, or a professional activity.

The property is dual-aspect with East–West exposure, benefits from a recent heat pump (2023), and includes a garage, terrace, and secure courtyard parking for several vehicles.

A versatile and rare opportunity, well worth viewing.
