DESCRIPTION

Saint-Émilion is one of France's most prestigious destinations, classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site and celebrated worldwide for its classified vineyards, historic architecture and vibrant year-round tourism. The village is located approximately 45 minutes from Bordeaux, with easy access to Bordeaux airport, the TGV high-speed rail network, and major motorway links (A89).

Local amenities include shops, restaurants, wine bars, medical services and schools, with additional facilities, hospitals and international schools available in nearby Libourne and Bordeaux. The area is highly sought after for second homes, tourism rentals and long-term investment.

Set within the medieval quarter, this exceptional ensemble offers a rare combination of multiple independent units, private outdoor spaces and parking. The renovated apartment provides immediate high-end rental or owner occupation, while the additional dwellings offer flexibility for further rental income, family use or resale optimisation.

This is a distinctive opportunity combining heritage, comfort and strong investment fundamentals in one of Bordeaux's most desirable locations.
