DESCRIPTION

On the ground floor, you have the open plan kitchen/lounge/dinning room with feature fireplace and log burning stove. A lovely, characterful room with original oak beams on show, pointed stone walls and solid oak floor. The staircase (also in oak) was hand built, as was the kitchen with lovely Belfast sink and the oven, hob, fridge and small freezer are included in the sale. The beautiful front door was also hand made although it is single glazed, but has an electric rolling shutter which is solar powered. All other windows and doors are double glazed and the back doors lead you out onto the courtyard and small garden, with a well (with water).

Upstairs there are 2 double bedrooms and a bathroom all beautifully presented and with the original stone sink and chimney breast as a feature in rear bedroom.

Going up again, the attic has been converted to make a beautiful bedroom with ensuite shower room. The washing machine is also up here, in a purpose built storage space next to the shower room.

There is a useful cellar underneath the lounge area, where the electric hot water tank is located. The property is connected to mains drains, inspected 17/04/25.
