NOTES

DESCRIPTION

From the moment you enter through the striking original metal doors, this elegant maison de maître reveals its refined and atmospheric character. A wide, light-filled hallway showcases high ceilings, original tiled floors, period fireplaces, and spectacular full-height wooden doors and frames with their original handles. Wooden double-glazed windows throughout provide excellent natural light and open views.

The ground floor offers an ideal layout for hospitality. To the right an elegant dining room is perfectly suited to guest use, while to the left of the entrance hall is the kitchen, offering scope for reinvention. Further along the hallway are a guest WC, a spacious en-suite bedroom and a comfortable living room. At the end of the corridor, a charming open space with views lends itself to a desk or sitting area.

A very elegant stairwell leads to the first floor, where four large and luminous en-suite bedrooms are complemented by a generous storage room. High ceilings and pleasant views continue throughout this level.

The top floor features a vast loft space, currently arranged as the owner's private bedroom and bathroom. Its size allows for multiple possibilities, including an additional guest suite or a leisure or games room.

Outside, the south-facing exterior space offers excellent potential for breakfast and evening dining, with room for seating and a barbecue area — a valuable asset for guest enjoyment.

The property also benefits from an exceptionally large garage with very high ceilings, accessible both from within the house and from the road at the...
