DESCRIPTION

Charming Townhouse in the Heart of Villefranche-du-Périgord – Dordogne meets Lot

Behind its charming façade lies a warm and welcoming home, largely move-in ready, requiring only a few light cosmetic updates to make it entirely your own.

On the ground floor, a cosy living room with an open fireplace (31m²) invites long evenings by the fire. It flows naturally into an intimate dining area (18m²) and a friendly kitchen space (4,5m²). From here, doors open onto a pleasant sunny terrace and private courtyard (15,5m²) — a peaceful retreat right in the centre of town.

Upstairs, you'll find two comfortable bedrooms (12m² + 15m²) and a bright master bedroom with an open dressing area (19m²). A shower room (3,5m²) completes this floor.

The top floor (approx. 40 m²) is a wonderful bonus space: a fourth bedroom, studio, office, games room or relaxation area — the choice is yours.

And then comes the real surprise...

At the rear of the property stands a second house with about 46m², spread over 2 floors), stretching all the way through to the street behind, with its own independent entrance. This space is currently used as a storage, garage and utility area. It still requires full conversion to become habitable. But it opens the door to countless possibilities: a guest house, rental income, hospitality project or even a private care annex. A garage at garden level and a beautiful wine cellar complete the ensemble.

A rare opportunity combining charm, location and potential — an ideal townhouse...
