IN BRIEF

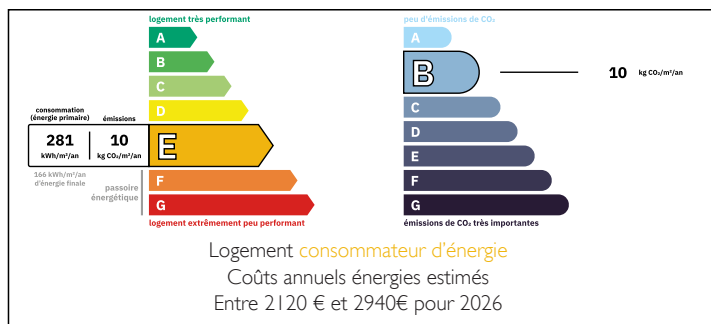

Located just 2km from the centre of Saint-Mayeux, this beautifully renovated home is presented to a high standard throughout. The generous plot of over 2,800m² provides great outdoor space, and there is scope to further extend the ground floor accommodation if required.

The ground floor comprises an entrance hall with practical storage for coats and shoes, a modern fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, a lounge with log burner, a laundry room, and a shower room with WC. On the floor are two double bedrooms and a family bathroom with shower, washbasin and WC.

The property benefits from underfloor heating in the entrance hall, lounge and kitchen, complemented by the wood burner in the lounge. The main bedroom also has a reversible air conditioning unit for year-round comfort.

DESCRIPTION

The house is double-glazed throughout and is connected to a septic tank that complies with current regulations.

Within the village of Saint-Mayeux you will find a local shop, bar/restaurant, post office and primary school. The nearby towns of Guerlédan, Corlay and Plussulien offer additional amenities, and the stunning Lac de Guerlédan is just a short drive away. The ferry ports of Saint-Malo and Roscoff are both under 90 minutes by car, as is Rennes with its international airport.
