DESCRIPTION

Approached along a quiet country lane, this beautifully restored stone 'corps de ferme' immediately conveys a sense of authenticity and refinement. Traditional materials have been used throughout, yet the overall effect is one of understated contemporary elegance.

Entry is via a generous covered terrace — an inviting threshold that sets the tone for relaxed outdoor living. Stepping inside, you arrive in the impressive double-height salon (8.3m x 5m); an grand yet welcoming space. The chic colour palette and lime/hemp plaster finishes create warmth and texture, while the scale of the room gives a wonderful sense of volume and light. It is a space designed as much for intimate winter evenings as for larger gatherings.

To the left, the dining room (4.6m x 3.9m) benefits from windows to two aspects, drawing in natural light and framing garden views. Beyond, the open kitchen (4.7m x 3.9m) enjoys far-reaching views over the surrounding countryside. From here, doors open directly onto a substantial decked terrace — perfectly positioned for evening apéritifs as the sun sets across the landscape.

Beyond the main salon lies a more intimate sitting room (4.7m x 3.9m), ideal as a snug, library or television room, with a conveniently placed ground-floor WC alongside. A beautiful wooden staircase rises to a galleried landing overlooking the principal living space, enhancing the sense of architectural cohesion. Upstairs are three double bedrooms (3.5m x 3.4m; 3.8m x 2.7m; 3.5m x 2.8m), each with its own en-suite bathroom with tadelakt plaster, offering privacy...
