DESCRIPTION

Mixed-Use Property: Restaurant with Apartment – Place de la Biagerie, Longré (16240)

Located in the heart of the village on Place de la Biagerie in Longré, this character property offers a rare opportunity to operate a bar-restaurant with on-site accommodation. The lease covers the entire building, combining a commercial space dedicated to food and beverage service on the ground floor with a spacious residential apartment upstairs.

The current owners, who are planning to retire, are happy to support the future buyers during a transition period to ensure a smooth takeover of the business.

The Buildings

Ground Floor – Restaurant & Bar:

The ground floor is fully fitted out for restaurant and bar operations and includes several distinct areas designed to welcome customers comfortably.

The main entrance leads into the bar area, which serves as the central hub for drinks service and customer reception. Next to the bar is the dining room, complemented by a veranda that provides additional seating in a bright and pleasant setting.

The restaurant also includes a professional kitchen designed to handle full-service food preparation. Customer restrooms (WC) are located on the same level for convenience.

The layout naturally separates service areas from dining spaces while maintaining smooth circulation between the bar, kitchen, and dining room.

An outdoor terrace allows for al fresco dining during warmer months, increasing seating capacity and attracting seasonal customers. The property also includes a garage, which can be used for storage, deliveries, or other operational needs.
