IN BRIEF

The location of this property is ideal, being situated within walking distance of the centre of beautiful Huelgoat, with its impressive weekly produce market, commerce, bars and restaurants, yet enjoying incredible views of the lake, complete with swans, from its position on a quiet residential street. The main living accommodation is elevated on the basement, which is the complete footprint of the property. However, on entering the accommodation, a kitchen, sitting room/dining room, shower room and bedroom are found, allowing for one floor living - perfect for those less able to manage the stairs. A spacious balcony, accessed from the sitting room or directly from the garden, provides an ideal place from where to enjoy the lake! Upstairs boasts another bedroom, a small storage room/study and a large landing - a perfect space for arts and crafts or...
