DESCRIPTION

A semi-detached 1-2 bedroom stone property in a hamlet in the commune of Ecuras in the eastern Charente and on the border with the Dordogne. Total habitable space is 120m<sup>2</sup> with total size of all plots being 292m<sup>2</sup>.

A small enclosed garden is at the front of the property. Entering through a wooden gate takes you to a small path that leads to the stout wooden front door.

Entering the house takes you straight into a large kitchen/ dining room (30m<sup>2</sup>) with tiled floor and large stone fireplace that now houses an old oil-fuelled heater. A double width doorway leads to the salon (25m<sup>2</sup>) with chequerboard tiled floor, another large stone fireplace and glazed door opening to a small stone terrace and the front garden.

A door from the salon leads to another room (10m<sup>2</sup>) currently only used for storage. Requiring complete renovation, this room offers a double height ceiling and could be converted to a small salon, ground floor bedroom or a bureau.

The remainder of the ground floor comprises a laundry/utility room(10m<sup>2</sup>), accessed from the kitchen, that leads on to the bathroom with shower(3m<sup>2</sup>), lavatory (2.5m<sup>2</sup>) and corridor leading to the back garden.

A wooden staircase from the kitchen leads to the first floor and a bedroom(30m<sup>2</sup>) with views over the front of the house. A door from the bedroom leads to an attic space (28m<sup>2</sup>) with windows that could be converted to a second bedroom.

The interior does need a refresh...
