IN BRIEF

Ideally located opposite the Channel Islands, Barneville-Carteret in Normandy, France—steeped in history—offers a peaceful and preserved living environment, where the beauty of the cliffs, the Port des Isles, and the fine sandy beaches continues to enchant both visitors and residents, just as it captivated Victor Hugo and Barbey d'Aurevilly in the 19th century.

Stéphanie Nash and Leggett Immobilier are presenting for sale 4 newly-built homes (4 houses and 4 flats) off-plan with 2 bedrooms. A dynamic, family-friendly town that is pleasant to live in all year round, Barneville-Carteret provides all everyday essentials: local shops, weekly markets, nursery and primary schools, as well as numerous cultural and sports facilities.

Residents also benefit from the proximity of Cherbourg, just a 40-minute drive away. This city is renowned for its shipyards, its famous Cité de la Mer, and ferry port to...
