DESCRIPTION

Set within a charming hamlet of the commune of Les Avanchers-Valmorel, this building plot represents an excellent opportunity to develop a property project in the French Alps.

The land benefits from planning permission fully cleared of third-party appeals for the construction of two chalets, offering a significant advantage by allowing the project to move forward quickly while ensuring administrative security. The project can suit various purposes: a family development with two separate chalets, a main residence with a guest chalet, or an investment with rental potential.

The plot enjoys a pleasant natural setting typical of Tarentaise villages, combining tranquillity, authenticity and open views of the surrounding mountains. It provides an ideal setting for chalets designed in keeping with traditional Alpine architecture, using materials such as wood and stone.

The location allows you to enjoy a peaceful mountain environment while remaining close to local amenities and outdoor activities. Within just a few minutes, you can reach the resort of Valmorel and its year-round facilities.

Valmorel is well known for its charming village atmosphere, attractive architecture and its fully pedestrianised main street lined with shops and restaurants. The resort is part of the Grand Domaine ski area, offering approximately 165 km of slopes suitable for all abilities as well as numerous summer activities.

The commune of Les Avanchers-Valmorel is made up of several traditional Savoyard villages surrounded by forests and alpine pastures. Overlooked by the peaks of the Cheval Noir and the Niélard, the area offers a preserved natural environment and...
