IN BRIEF

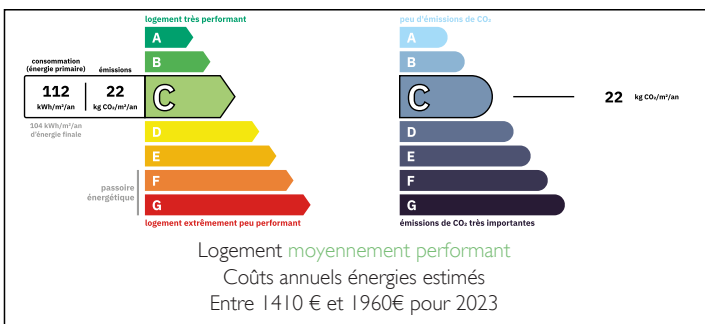

Located just off Rue Notre-Dame and the Quais des Chartrons, this charming stone apartment is set on the third floor and features impressive cathedral ceilings.

Original wooden flooring and exposed stone walls throughout enhance its authentic character.

The apartment retains many period features while having been modernised in 2010, including a contemporary kitchen, updated bathrooms, and new windows, meaning no renovation work is required.

Occupying the entire third floor, the property offers privacy within a well-maintained traditional building.
