NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The garage doors to this property lead you into a small anteroom which has further doors into the storage area behind, these doors can be opened to allow you to park a small car.

The central heating boiler and oil tank are in this large downstairs room.

Wooden stairs lead you up to the first floor. There is a large open plan kitchen / living room as well as a bathroom on this level.

Doors lead through to a bedroom with further doors leading out into the garden.

There is another staircase to the second floor where there is a large open plan bedroom and another bathroom.

As well as the doors in the first floor bedroom there are also doors to the garden in the basement. Both these lead out to a small courtyard area where you will find the entrance to the small detached barn, perfect as studio or just for storage.

A path leads from the courtyard area down the side of the barn to the main grassed garden area, in addition there is another small parcel behind this one with a shed for storage of garden equipment.

The house has recently been re roofed and has a mains drains connection. Equipped with oil fired central heating, it is ready to move in and, at this price, is definitely well worth visiting.
