IN BRIEF

An eminent 5 bedroom 18th century maison de maître with 19th century additions, stands in its own grounds outside one of the smallest villages in the Dordogne. The property overlooks a beautiful green meadow valley in a richly agricultural parish high on a plateau in the Perigord noir. The house is nicely set out with large rooms on the ground floor, however due to the property not being lived for a long period, there are issues and this is reflected in the price and clearly indicated in the extra images and the description below for those who are seriously interested.
