DESCRIPTION

This beautifully renovated village house in Vinça offers a perfect blend of character and modern living, arranged over four levels and finished to a high standard throughout.

On the ground floor, the space has been thoughtfully transformed into a bright and welcoming living area, complete with a practical storage cupboard.

The first floor features a stylish open-plan layout with a contemporary kitchen and dining area, ideal for entertaining, along with a modern shower room.

On the second floor, you'll find two comfortable bedrooms, as well as a separate WC with basin for added convenience.

The top floor is a real highlight of the property, boasting a summer kitchen with sliding doors that open directly onto a superb 24 m² terrace. From here, you can enjoy breathtaking 180° views stretching towards the Canigou, creating the perfect setting for outdoor dining and relaxation.

This lock up and leave home is ideal as a permanent residence, holiday retreat, or rental investment, offering charm, light, and exceptional views in a sought-after village setting.
