DESCRIPTION

The house is full of potential for anyone looking for a renovation project with character. The entrance opens directly into the kitchen, which is partially open to the living area, creating a welcoming ground-floor layout.

The property currently offers one bedroom, a shower room, a separate toilet, and an additional room currently used for wood storage. The attic can be converted, allowing you to create extra bedrooms or living space according to your needs.

Outside, you'll find a small courtyard garden, ideal for enjoying the peaceful surroundings, along with a well and a barn included in the sale—perfect for storage, or workshop.

With its authentic charm and solid structure, this property is an excellent opportunity to create a cosy home, holiday retreat, or investment project.
