DESCRIPTION

The single bedroom is of a generous size of 12.29m² with east facing patio doors opening onto an east-facing terrace.

The lounge kitchen diner of 18,46m² gives the apartment the light and space which make you feel like you have found modern living but with Alpine surrounds. What could be better?

This is on the 1st floor of the residence with views to sunny side of the Versant du Soleil. Lift access means that it is accessible to everyone.

The residence has a two level garage and different types of garages can be purchased (basic spaces or up to two car garages).

Ideal as a home for a first purchase, only minutes from the shops and commerces, it could also be rented out as an investment property all year round. There are lots of opportunities to make this new build investment pay for itself.

Aime is a traditional alpine town in the Tarentaise Valley with practical everyday amenities and excellent transport links that make it appealing for full-time living or as a base for a holiday home. The town is served by Gare d'Aime-La Plagne with SNCF TER regional services and seasonal TGV/Eurostar trains, offering direct connections to Bourg-Saint-Maurice, Albertville, Chambéry, Lyon and Paris.

In the town you'll find a good selection of shops and services and for dining out there's a range of restaurants. The town has local services such as schools, banks, pharmacies and health services, traditional markets and lots of community events such as...
