DESCRIPTION

Character House in Villette - Rural Living Near the Vexin National Park

Located in the peaceful village of Villette (78930), this 2-bedroom house offers a pleasant mix of rural charm and modern convenience. Well positioned close to the Vexin Regional Natural Park, the property provides an opportunity to enjoy country living while maintaining good transport links to Paris by road and rail via nearby Mantes-la-Jolie station.

Ground Floor

The entrance hall features built-in storage and tiled flooring. It leads into a 12m² kitchen with a notable vaulted ceiling, offering good proportions and plenty of character. A ground floor WC completes this level.

The main living space is a 50m² double living and dining room with cathedral ceilings, traditional tommette tile flooring, and an open fireplace. French doors open directly onto the garden.

First Floor

A staircase leads to the main bedroom — a 12m² room with an additional 6m² of built-in storage space. A bathroom with WC serves this floor. A second staircase leads to a mezzanine level that can function as a second bedroom, home office, studio, or additional storage.

Garden and Outdoor Spaces

The garden is well established, with maintained lawns, flowerbeds, a sun terrace, and a vegetable patch. A wood storage area serves the fireplace. The recently constructed double garage offers secure parking for two vehicles with automatic doors and attic storage above.

Location

Villette offers village tranquility with practical access to amenities. The village has an école maternelle (Les Gaudines), making it suitable for families with young children. Mantes-la-Jolie, 5.7km...
