NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the peaceful hills of the Morvan Regional Park in Burgundy, this exceptional property offers a truly serene lifestyle. Beautifully renovated, the main house is ready to welcome its new owners. It features a refreshing swimming pool for summer days and a charming veranda, perfect for enjoying the in-between seasons.

The property also includes two guest units that generate regular rental income, making it an attractive investment opportunity. A spacious 3,000 m² plot located just across a quiet road provides ample space for further development or outdoor activities.

The estate comprises the main house with pool, a large guest apartment on the first floor, and a loft offering additional potential. Across the road, there is a separate guest cottage, along with a garage, workshop, and additional outbuilding. The land enjoys open views and is free of occupancy.

The main house features a well-equipped kitchen opening onto a versatile veranda, ideal as a winter garden or secondary living space. The kitchen leads to the dining room and then to the living room. Although the main entrance is located in the living room, access is typically via the rear, directly into the kitchen.

A hallway leads to two bedrooms, a shower room, and separate toilets, and also provides access to the guest apartment upstairs. At the back of the living room, there are two storage rooms, one of which serves as a wine cellar.

The large guest apartment, ready for rental, includes a living area with a simple kitchenette, a...
