IN BRIEF

Dating back to 1694, this charming stone property offers a rare opportunity to restore a home rich in history and character. It is set in a peaceful, village environment and comprises a main house and a large, attached barn with land of 5,561 m2 (the land is not attached but is just across the road).

The property is packed full of beautiful original features, including exposed beams showcasing traditional craftsmanship, wood panelling, period fireplaces and a stone staircase.

Albeit a total refurbishment (roof, plumbing, electricity and septic tank) this unique property offers total artistic license to create a unique home. The barn and large plot of land offers even more opportunity to realise your dream project, large family home, holiday retreat or gite - this really is a chance to bring a historic French home back to life!
