IN BRIEF

Located in Saint-Martin-des-Fontaines, in the heart of the Vendée region, this property enjoys a peaceful setting within a charming village. The village currently has a restaurant, while the neighboring town offers a wide range of shops and services: a bakery, a convenience store, a pharmacy, a bank, a school, and an auto repair shop.

Ideally located, you are just 15 minutes from Fontenay-le-Comte, a historic town offering all amenities (hospital, bus station, movie theater, swimming pool, hypermarkets, doctors, market...). Niort and its TGV station are accessible in 50 minutes, while the beaches and La Rochelle (TGV station and airport) are about an hour away.

The property consists of a renovated house of approximately 130 m², outbuildings, a courtyard, a landscaped garden, and a meadow with a pond.

DESCRIPTION

A charming, well-maintained property offering comfort, authenticity, and great potential for renovation.

This stone house combines character with functionality.

It comprises:

Ground floor:

A spacious entryway with a closet (13.35 m²) welcomes you and leads to a cozy 33 m² living room featuring a wood-burning stove. The fully equipped kitchen (13 m²), both inviting and functional, is complemented by a pantry. You'll also find a bathroom with a toilet, as well as a 13 m² bedroom, ideal for single-level living.

Outside, a pleasant 31 m² covered terrace with a working bread oven extends the living spaces, accompanied by a second terrace to fully enjoy sunny days.

Upstairs:

A landing leads to three bedrooms (14.50 m², 11.50 m², and 8 m²) as well as a shower room with a toilet.

Outbuildings:

An attached 20 m² garage and several outbuildings (approximately 20 m²) complete the property.

An attractive exterior:

The property features a courtyard; the tree-lined and landscaped garden is particularly pleasant, with well-maintained vegetable patches. A meadow of approximately 3,300 m² with a pond completes this natural and peaceful setting.
