NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Set in the peaceful countryside of Ger, this charming Normandy farmhouse offers a wonderful opportunity to create your ideal rural lifestyle while enjoying immediate comfort and long-term potential. Surrounded by rolling fields and the picturesque Bocage landscape, this is a ready-to-move-into home with scope to personalise and add charm.

The house provides approximately 107 m² of habitable space. On the ground floor, there is an entrance hall, kitchen, living room, one bedroom, shower room, and WC, ideal for flexible living.

Upstairs, a landing leads to three further bedrooms, with an attic above offering additional storage or conversion possibilities.

A key feature is the air-source heat pump installed around 3 years ago, providing efficient and modern heating. The property is supplied by well water, and the fosse system is currently non-conforming, which would need upgrading in line with current regulations.

A Property Full of Potential

Set on approximately 7,887 m², the property offers space, versatility, and exciting development possibilities:

Extensive outbuildings totaling approx. 300 m²

Attached garage and adjoining cellar

Multiple additional structures

A separate former house requiring full renovation, ideal for a gîte, guest accommodation or independent dwelling (subject to planning permission)

There is also the possibility to acquire an additional 1.20 hectares of land, perfect for a smallholding, equestrian use, or simply enhancing privacy and outdoor space.
