IN BRIEF

Perched on the sunny hillsides of northern Nice in the Mantega neighborhood, this traditional Niçoise villa sits at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, offering breathtaking, unobstructed views across the sea and the city skyline.

Spanning 174m² across two floors on a spacious 430m² plot of land, the villa offers a versatile layout with 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, a bright 29m² open-plan living and dining room, an equipped 16m² kitchen, and a lounge of 21.8m².

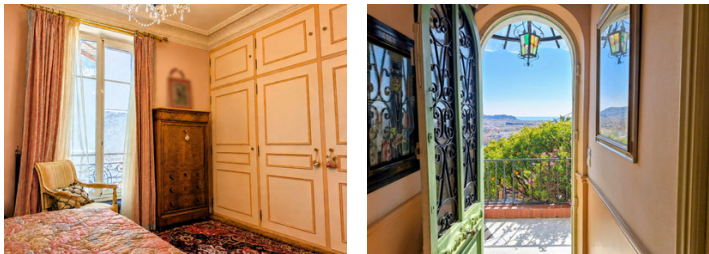

Built in 1928, this traditional Villa is in outstanding condition, maintaining its traditional charm - original ceramic tiles and wood flooring give the home an authentic Niçoise character. Outside, behind the house, sits a private pool (27m²) with panoramic sea views. The villa is surrounded by landscaped Mediterranean gardens filled with mature orange, lemon, and clementine trees. Finally, the property is

NOTES

Set on Nice's northern hillside in the Mantega neighborhood, this villa enjoys a rare combination of privacy and proximity — a peaceful, green retreat within just 10 minutes of the city center by car. The property is located only 1.5km from the vibrant Marché de la Libération, one of Nice's most famous outdoor markets.

The surrounding neighborhood offers convenient access to a full range of local amenities including shops, schools, restaurants, and other facilities. For those relying on public transport, Bus Line 57 provides a direct connection to Nice city center and the Nice-Ville train station, while Bus Line 8 runs directly to the Promenade des Anglais. Nice Côte d'Azur International Airport is approximately 9km away, making this an equally practical choice for
