DESCRIPTION

Key features:

Set back from the road in an idyllic, edge-of-village location: peaceful but not isolated, just a few minutes' walk to a bar/shop and less than 15 minutes' drive to a town with full amenities and daily train services direct to Paris or the coast

Two lounges (one upstairs with balcony)

Three double bedrooms with walk-in wardrobes, two of them with en-suite shower rooms with WCs, and also a full family bathroom and a ground floor WC.

Large utility room with built-in kitchen cabinets and sink

More than 1.2 acres of land with countryside and views in each direction.

Four attractive patios and outdoor living areas, one fenced and one covered

A substantial pine-clad outbuilding, recently refurbished, and a log store.

A serviced potential building plot in the garden, which previously had planning consent for a three-bedroomed detached house, with its own septic tank already in place.

A large, integral garage/workshop, as well as a substantial gravelled parking area next to the house.

Exterior power sockets and water taps uPVC double glazed windows and doors throughout

Internet connection and a satellite dish for TV reception

Modern, compliant septic tank

Substantial attic, with a proper staircase, covering the full footprint of the house to offer clean, dry storage and potential for other uses.

100-metre gravelled driveway and parking area.

Rainwater drainage from roof, via drainpipes, to a deep soakaway, giving options for water capture. The large, Welsh slate roof is also ideal for solar panels.

The house also offers significant flexibility:

The upstairs lounge could be used as a...
