DESCRIPTION

Located in the commune of Bouzic, a charming village in the Périgord Noir, this beautiful semi-detached stone house has undergone a complete renovation using high-quality materials, combining authentic character with modern comfort.

Upon arrival, a welcoming and carefully landscaped front garden enhances the property and creates a warm first impression.

Offering approximately 169 m² of living space, the house comprises on the ground floor a spacious entrance hall and a generous, convivial living room, enhanced by a stone fireplace with insert. The recently fitted, fully equipped kitchen opens directly onto the garden, creating an ideal setting for outdoor dining.

This level also includes a full bathroom with both bathtub and shower, as well as separate toilets with a utility/laundry area.

Upstairs, three spacious bedrooms provide comfort and natural light. A large additional room offers further potential for conversion within the attic space.

The property's charm is immediately evident through exposed beams, generous volumes, and high ceilings, all enhanced by tasteful décor creating an elegant and welcoming atmosphere.

In terms of comfort and features, the house offers high-quality amenities ensuring an excellent standard of living: underfloor heating, double glazing, fibre optic internet, and a compliant individual sewage system.

Outside, the landscaped south-facing garden, meticulously maintained, provides a privileged setting with open views. Together with the welcoming front garden, these outdoor spaces allow enjoyment of different moments of the day depending on sunlight.
