DESCRIPTION

The ground floor was fully renovated two years ago and remains covered by an 8-year structural warranty. Key upgrades include a new roof, an upgraded electrical system, an insulated concrete ceiling, ventilation (VMC), and full connection to the main sewage system.

The upstairs barn currently includes a separate room used for storage. The barn is in excellent condition and offers strong potential for conversion—either into a self-contained apartment with its own private entrance, or to be integrated into the existing living space. In the latter case, a staircase could be installed in what is currently the dressing room, more than doubling the total habitable area.

While perhaps best known for winter sports, Samoëns is a true year-round destination. From late spring to early autumn, the surrounding valley offers an abundance of outdoor adventures—hiking, paragliding, rafting, cycling, canyoning, and swimming in nearby lakes and pools—making it an ideal spot for families and nature lovers alike.

In winter, Samoëns provides direct access to France's fourth largest ski domain, the Grand Massif, which links together the resorts of Flaine, Les Carroz, Morillon and Sixt-Fer-à-Cheval. With 265 km of pistes, it's a paradise for skiers and snowboarders of all levels.

Thanks to its proximity to Geneva Airport—only about an hour's drive away—it has excellent accessibility whether you're looking for a permanent home or a holiday retreat.
