IN BRIEF

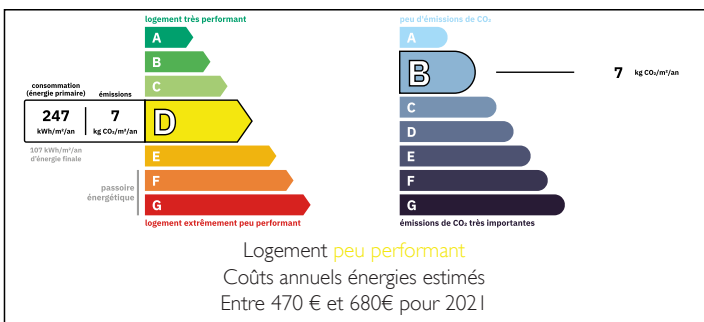

Former Campsite – 1.4 Hectares – Tourism Project with Permits

Set in a peaceful countryside location, this former campsite offers a rare opportunity to redevelop a tourism project on approx. 1.4 hectares, surrounded by woodland and fields. It is located just a few minutes from Lac de Beaumont-de-Lomagne (around 4 km by bike).

The site benefits from all necessary permissions to restart and develop a tourism activity.

It includes approx. 20 prepared pitches, a gîte with one bedroom and shower room, and 3 chalets in the lower part of the land: 1 fully finished and furnished (ready to use), and 2 at different stages of completion.

DESCRIPTION

RARE OPPORTUNITY – 1.4 HECTARE TOURISM SITE WITH FULL PERMISSIONS – READY TO RESTART

A genuinely rare opportunity to acquire a former campsite set in unspoilt countryside, just minutes from the popular Lac de Beaumont-de-Lomagne.

This 1.4-hectare natural estate is already set up for tourism and offers all the ingredients for an immediate restart of activity, with valid permissions in place to operate and further develop the site.

Located in a peaceful rural setting yet only a few minutes' drive and approx. 4 km by bike from the lake, this property combines strong tourism appeal with exceptional development potential.
