DESCRIPTION

The main living areas are particularly impressive, benefiting from excellent volumes and an abundance of natural light. Openings frame the stunning south-west facing views with balconies. This orientation ensures optimal sunshine from late morning through to the afternoon, making the living space especially enjoyable year-round—whether relaxing after skiing in winter or unwinding during long summer evenings.

The property is presented in a functional and turnkey condition, allowing immediate enjoyment without the need for significant works. Its practical layout also ensure very low ongoing maintenance, making it an ideal lock-up-and-leave alpine base or a hassle-free rental investment.

The sense of space continues throughout, with well-balanced proportions and a practical flow between rooms. There remains scope to further personalise the interiors if desired, while already offering a comfortable and efficient living environment as it stands.

Externally, the property is part of a friendly copropriété, offering a reassuring sense of community without compromising privacy. The inclusion of private parking of 4 spaces is a valuable and increasingly rare feature in this sought-after location, adding both convenience and long-term appeal.

Ideally situated in Villarabout, the house enjoys a tranquil and authentic alpine environment while being just 1km from St Martin de Belleville (with access to a free ski bus during the winter season less than 100m away). This proximity provides swift access to the heart of the village of St Martin de Belleville, its shops, restaurants, and amenities, as well as direct links to the world-renowned Three Valleys ski area—offering some of...
