NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Wonderful and successful restaurant business with residential apartment above in the Allier. Fully equipped restaurant business with large dining room, smaller private dining/overspill room, bar area, separate catering kitchen and cloakroom with 5 rooms and bathroom on the upper floor via private entrance offering a flexible configuration of accommodation for the business owners.

The business is offered as a profitable, going concern with further development opportunities, fully equipped with all contents being sold with the business and building. The current owners have established the business and renovated the interior to a modern and comfortable level which attracts regular guests and visitors with theme evenings and music events.

The apartment is currently used by the owners as offices as they both have separate houses in the village and don't need to live onsite. The apartment with its private access is ready to be reconfigured as a 3 bedroom, lounge/dining kitchen and bathroom apartment perfect for owner accommodation.

The business has built a regular clientele who visit all year round and also boosted by events during the year with live music and themes. The restaurant also extends to the front of the property with a very large terrace all approved by the local mayor to offer increased covers during busy periods.

Recently the owners were nominated and invited to the Trophées pro Groupama: 2025 edition! recognising small businesses who contribute to Allier tourism - wonderful!
