IN BRIEF

Beautifully restored stone family home with two independent 2-bedroom gîtes, swimming pool, workshop and double garage, set in a peaceful countryside location within the renowned truffle region and close to the historic Saint Jacques de Compostelle pilgrimage route.

The main house combines character and comfort with exposed beams, gas central heating, and triple-glazed windows and doors throughout. Presented in good condition, the property offers spacious and versatile accommodation while remaining within easy reach of local amenities.

The two gîtes are each equipped with electric heating and provide excellent potential for holiday rentals, guest accommodation, or multi-generational living. Additional features include three-phase electrics, two separate electricity meters ideal for monitoring guest usage, and a 30,000-litre rainwater recovery tank.

Surrounding the property is a beautiful, well-planted
