NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This elegant one-bedroom apartment is ideally positioned on the first floor of a beautifully preserved 18th-century stone building in the very heart of historic Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, overlooking one of the town's charming and quintessential squares.

Completely redesigned and renovated to a high standard, the apartment perfectly combines the timeless character of Provence with refined contemporary style and intelligent architectural design. Large traditional windows framed by wooden shutters, together with interior blinds and soft curtains, flood the interiors with natural light throughout the day while creating an inviting and serene atmosphere. Original features such as exposed stone walls and magnificent high beamed ceilings have been carefully preserved and enhanced, lending warmth, authenticity, and understated elegance throughout the property.

The thoughtfully designed open-plan living and dining space centres around a bespoke fitted kitchen featuring quality finishes and integrated appliances, including a refrigerator, dishwasher, wine fridge, induction cooktop, wall oven, and warming oven. Custom cabinetry and carefully integrated storage solutions enhance both practicality and aesthetics, creating a sophisticated yet highly functional living environment equally suited to relaxed daily life and entertaining.

The double bedroom offers a calm and intimate retreat with cleverly integrated storage and refined finishes. The beautifully appointed shower room features a generous walk-in shower and elegant curved vanity, while the separate WC adds additional convenience. A discreet laundry cupboard and a cleverly integrated study nook further elevate the apartment's versatility, making it perfectly suited as a primary residence, luxurious pied-à-terre, or premium rental investment.
