DESCRIPTION

This lovely country house, tucked away in a small hamlet is ready to go: It has a great energy label due to the double glazing and insulation and the kitchen has recently been updated.

The sitting room is cozy with its integrated log burner and it has natural light coming in on three sides. Above it is a mezzanine, currently in use as office space.

There are three bedrooms on the ground floor, from which two are connected and one is in the middle. It's an ideal situation to have a beautiful Jack&Jill bathroom. The bathroom. The attic is insulated but needs finishing. It is possible to create one or two bedrooms there without losing too much storage space. The exterior offers a private courtyard with a piggery and the well. The former bread oven is now the boiler room. The large barn offers 200M2 per floor and has a field of just over 2000M2 behind it. Opposite the house is a parcel of 49M2 which can be used to build a carport.

The villages nearby are Chamboulive at about 5 minutes (bar, restaurant, bakery etc. and Le Lonzac at less than 5 minutes with a grocery store, a bakery, a pharmacy bars and restaurants.

Uzerche is the bigger village with two supermarkets, a cinema, various shops, garages and the train station which connects you to Limoges-Paris (straight line) in the North and Brive-la-Gaillarde in the South from where you can go to Bordeaux, Toulouse, Tulle, Rodez etc.
