NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Located on the edge of a charming rural village in the Charolais with beautiful views, this property consists of a habitable house and an additional unfinished house/gîte under the same roof, offering strong potential for guest accommodation or expansion.

The main house (147 m², energy rating D) includes a large 25 m² living room, a 25 m² kitchen, a bathroom with shower and WC, and storage space. Upstairs are three bedrooms with a bathroom and separate toilet. Below the house are a large cellar and workshop. The property benefits from mains drainage and double glazing, and has a pleasant rear garden as well as a separate stone barn at the front.

The second part of the property has already seen significant work, including a renewed roof and partially completed layout with internal walls, staircase, and plumbing provisions. It was originally intended for two gîtes or guest rooms but could also be integrated into the main residence.

Situated between the historic town of Cluny and the lively Montceau-les-Mines, the property enjoys a peaceful rural setting with nearby amenities, including a small supermarket within walking distance.
