DESCRIPTION

This former stone house was fully reconstructed in 2025. It combines traditional character with modern reconstruction and offers strong potential for further finishing.

The ground floor features a large 56 m² open-plan living area with a basic water point and sink (no fitted kitchen), a 7 m² shower room, and a separate toilet. A staircase leads to a spacious loft, suitable for conversion into 2–3 bedrooms with a bathroom.

A large cellar of approximately 62 m² is accessible both internally and externally. It houses the hot water tank and has water and electricity connections, making it ideal for a laundry room or future central heating system. Heating is currently provided by electric radiators. The septic system is approximately 2 years old.

Outside, a large barn provides a garage, stable, and storage areas. The property sits on a 147,770 m² plot with open countryside views, ideal for horses or agricultural projects.

Located near the Lake of La Brosse, this property is perfect for nature lovers and outdoor activities. Montmarault is 6 km away for shops and essential services, with Montluçon 25 km and Saint-Pourçain-sur-Sioule 33 km for larger amenities.

With its generous spaces, large plot, and flexible layout, this property offers a rare opportunity to create a family home or country retreat tailored to your needs.
