DESCRIPTION

Constructed in 1997 and extending to approximately 233 m², the property has been thoughtfully designed to maximise light, flow and connection to the surrounding countryside. The interiors present beautifully throughout, blending traditional Provençal architecture with warm contemporary comfort. Arched openings, soft neutral tones, solid wood finishes and large French doors create a bright and welcoming atmosphere across the home.

At the centre of the property is an impressive 92 m² reception and living space featuring multiple lounge and dining areas, a fireplace with insert, and direct access onto expansive covered and open terraces overlooking the gardens and surrounding greenery. The spacious fitted kitchen with central island is ideal for family living and entertaining, offering both practicality and charm.

NOTES

The first floor accommodates three generous bedrooms, office space and two bathrooms, while the lower ground level benefits from a substantial independent guest suite/apartment with private terrace access, presenting excellent flexibility for visiting family, seasonal guests or potential holiday rental income.

Additional features include:

- * Double garage with automated door
- * Wine cellar and extensive storage
- * Laundry room
- * Wooden chalet/outbuilding
- * Multiple terraces for outdoor dining and entertaining
- * Private septic system
- * Air conditioning
- * Landscaped Mediterranean grounds with mature planting and olive trees

The property enjoys a peaceful setting with excellent privacy and no immediate overlooking neighbours,
