DESCRIPTION

Arriving on a small country lane, the entry to this property is via metal gates that leads you into the private central courtyard surrounded by the mill house, gite, double garage and renovated barn and workshop.

The main house is made up of an entrance hall that leads through to the kitchen/diner and also a massive stone floored lounge area with a feature wood burner located in the centre of the room. Both rooms have access out to the rear terrace that looks out over the back garden, river and vegetable plot.

There is an attractive wooden staircase leading up from the lounge area to the large principal bedroom with en suite and W.C. The other 3 bedrooms are accessed via a spiral staircase from the entrance hall, one of the bedrooms is en suite but there is also a family bathroom and toilet.

The gite can be accessed via an internal door to the house or from a private entrance from the courtyard. Downstairs is an open plan kitchen/diner with a log burner set into the former fire place, upstairs is a spacious bedroom with attached bathroom and toilet. The bedroom benefits from double doors leading out to a stunning terrace with views down to the river.

The property benefits from many original features, is heated by a very efficient heat pump and double glazed throughout.

The large barn in principal has been split into 3 sections. To the left a large open workshop with a roller...
