DESCRIPTION

In the heart of the Périgord Vert, in a peaceful hamlet between Ribérac and Aubeterre, discover this authentic character farmhouse offering a calm rural lifestyle, ideal for bringing a wide range of projects to life.

Whether as a main residence, holiday home, artisan business, tourism activity or agricultural project, this property can easily adapt to your needs and ambitions.

The property is beautifully arranged around a charming courtyard with a well, which forms the true heart of the estate.

The main house comprises a traditional 11 sqm entrance hall, a WC, a bright 26 m² living room with an attractive fireplace and wood-burning stove, as well as a welcoming 26 m² kitchen dining room. The kitchen area includes an insert fireplace, a wood-burning cooker, gas hob, extractor hood and laundry area. Upstairs, a landing leads to a functional shower room and two spacious bedrooms of 27 m² and 30 m², each benefiting from two windows, original wooden flooring and exposed beams. Above, a 65 m² convertible attic offers excellent additional potential for extension or further accommodation.

Original features have been carefully preserved throughout, creating a warm and authentic atmosphere with beautiful old wooden floors, beams and period doors. The house benefits from a roof in very good condition, a new drainage system and the comfort of gas-fired central heating.

The ground-floor cellar connects the house to the large adjoining barn of 144 sqm, an ideal space for storage, workshops, vehicles or extending the living accommodation. Some roof work...
