IN BRIEF

In the heart of an historic village and in the shadow of its wonderful chateau, these two interconnecting properties offer a world of opportunity. The older of the two buildings dates from the mid 19th century and offers a wealth of original features including a cellar. Currently there are two sitting rooms, three bedrooms, a shower room and a huge, light-filled attic room with views towards the chateau. the second more modern property was the village bakery. This building will require renovation but the ground floor has already been renovated to provide a modern kitchen with a large sitting room with access to a courtyard. There is also a fully tiled shower room on this level. Upstairs a further five rooms are in various stages of renovation and will need to be completed. There are several outbuildings,...
