IN BRIEF

A true gem in the heart of Eymet! Once the home of a wine merchant, this elegant character property combines authenticity, charm, and exciting potential. From the moment you step inside, the original staircase and beautiful period mouldings reflect its rich history. The ground floor has a refined sitting room, a recently renovated bathroom, and a spacious kitchen opening onto a delightful south-facing private courtyard – a peaceful retreat in the centre of town. Upstairs are two generous bedrooms, one of which benefits from its own washbasin and WC. Above, the attic offers exceptional scope to create additional living space. A stone barn completes the property, providing further storage or development possibilities.

Located in the town centre, the property enjoys access from two streets. Two steps from Eymet's shops, cafés and restaurants, and 25 mins from Bergerac and...
