IN BRIEF

In the heart of the sought-after village of Montcuq, this substantial Quercy stone property offers a rare opportunity to combine immediate rental income with an exciting renovation project.

The building comprises 2 completely independent entities. On the ground floor, a fully renovated commercial unit, currently operating as a medical practice, is leased until June 2028, providing secure income from day one.

A separate entrance leads to the former village bakery, a character-filled property arranged over four levels with approximately 300 m² of potential living space. Rich in original features, including the historic bread oven and exposed half-timbering potential, it offers endless possibilities to create a spacious family home, several apartments, artist's studios, or a mixed-use project.

With a renovated roof, separate utilities and a prime location just steps from shops, restaurants and the famous weekly market, this is a unique investment...
