IN BRIEF

A charming three-bedroom apartment, perfectly suited as a mountain retreat, family second home, or practical staff accommodation.

Nestled in a peaceful hamlet just below the centre of Méribel, the property enjoys the ideal balance between convenient access to the ski slopes and resort amenities, and the tranquillity of an authentic alpine setting. Surrounded by nature, it offers a relaxing escape where you can unwind and recharge after a day in the mountains.

Situated within an intimate residence of just seven apartments, the property benefits from panoramic views over the Méribel Valley. Its bright and inviting interior creates a warm alpine atmosphere, combining comfort and practicality throughout the year. Whether for seasonal use or regular mountain getaways, this apartment provides an excellent base from which to enjoy all that Méribel has to offer.

DESCRIPTION

Nestled in a picturesque hamlet just minutes from the centre of Méribel, this charming and spacious 103 m² apartment enjoys an enviable setting, combining authentic alpine character, tranquillity, and stunning mountain views. Occupying the second floor of an intimate residence of just seven apartments, it offers a rare sense of space, privacy, and natural light.

The apartment benefits from several south-west-facing balconies, enjoying sunshine throughout the day and commanding breathtaking panoramic views of the surrounding peaks and the Méribel Valley. While perfectly habitable in its current condition, the property also presents excellent potential for renovation and personalisation, allowing future owners to create a bespoke mountain home.

NOTES

Offering significantly greater value than comparable properties in the heart of the resort, this apartment strikes the perfect balance between peaceful village living and easy access to Méribel's world-class skiing and amenities, which are just a few minutes away by car. The setting is calm, family-friendly, and wonderfully preserved, providing an authentic mountain lifestyle away from the bustle of the resort centre.
