IN BRIEF

A STANDOUT PROPERTY – Stone property with two additional dwellings, outbuildings, and great potential in the Dordogne

Set in a peaceful, south-facing location with no overlooking neighbors, this beautiful property of character features a 128 m² stone house comprising a bright living room, a kitchen, three bedrooms, a study, a cellar, and an insulated attic. The property also includes two independent 3-room apartments—ideal for use as holiday cottages (gîtes), seasonal or long-term rentals, a professional workspace, or guest accommodation for family and friends. There are numerous outbuildings: barns measuring 114 m², 60 m², and 20 m², plus a barn/garage with a 140 m² footprint (280 m² total including the upper floor) that already has planning permission for conversion. Wooded grounds with countryside views.

Train station nearby.
