IN BRIEF

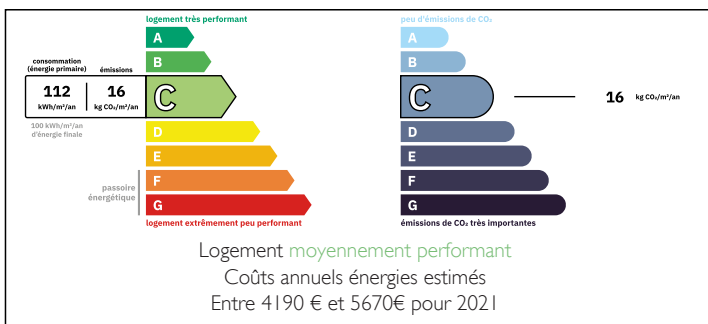

Situated in the peaceful Charente countryside near Jarnac and Cognac, this substantial stone-built property offers an exceptional combination of space, flexibility and future potential.

Originally forming part of the historic Château de Brillac estate, the property has been extensively renovated to provide comfortable and practical accommodation, while retaining elements of its historic origins, including exposed timber beams.

Set within approximately 4.34 hectares (10.7 acres) of land, the property currently offers around 484m² of habitable accommodation, together with a further 158m² of additional space suitable for conversion, subject to any necessary permissions.

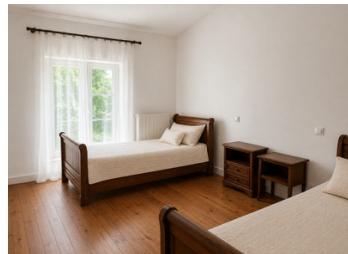

The neighbouring Château de Brillac is also currently available for purchase by separate negotiation: <https://>
