IN BRIEF

Set in a peaceful hamlet, this character property offers a comfortable habitable space alongside excellent potential to create a more spacious country home. The existing accommodation is in good condition, while the generous gardens, traditional mazot, and large barn with conversion potential provide exciting possibilities for future development. Planning permission is already in place to enhance the living space.

Perched above the market town of Taninges in the heart of the French Alps, this property enjoys a stunning mountain setting. The area is renowned for its year-round outdoor lifestyle, with easy access to hiking, cycling, skiing, and the renowned Grand Massif, Portes du Soleil and Praz de Lys Sommand ski areas, while local shops, restaurants, and amenities remain within a short drive. Combining alpine charm, natural beauty, and excellent access to Geneva and its international airport, this is an...
