DESCRIPTION

Located just 20 minutes from Carcassonne and its international airport, and only one hour from Toulouse, the property enjoys an exceptional setting within a protected Natura 2000 site, surrounded by rolling countryside and commanding breathtaking panoramic views across the Malepère hills.

A place of remarkable tranquillity, where a life style is defined by space, nature and complete privacy.

At the heart of the estate stands a 19th-century stone residence offering approximately 575 m² of living accommodation.

Currently configured as five independent apartments, this property could provide exceptional flexibility and multiple income-generating possibilities, including:

- * Private family estate
- * Luxury guesthouse or boutique hospitality business
- * High-end holiday rental operation
- * Multi-generational residence
- * Turnkey investment property with established rental potential

Each apartment benefits from independent central heating, private outdoor terraces, and character features including original fireplaces and wood-burning stoves, blending authentic charm with modern comfort.

Exceptional Outdoor Living

Designed to embrace the beauty of its surroundings, the estate offers an outstanding leisure environment centred around a heated and secure swimming pool. Positioned away from the residential buildings to ensure complete peace and privacy, the pool area features a fully equipped pool house with barbecue facilities and guest amenities, creating the perfect setting for entertaining or enjoying spectacular sunsets over the surrounding countryside.
