NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Hidden behind its gates in the centre of La Crèche, this remarkable property dates from the 18th century and has been lovingly transformed over the past fifty years into a home that combines history, creativity and modern comfort.

From the moment you arrive, the property makes an impression. A large stone archway leads into beautifully landscaped grounds where mature planting, terraces and artistic features create an environment that is both peaceful and inspiring.

The heated swimming pool forms the centrepiece of the outdoor living space and is complemented by a superb glazed pool house of approximately 70m², ideal for entertaining family and friends throughout the seasons. A summer kitchen, independent WC and outdoor shower further enhance this exceptional area.

Inside, the accommodation is spacious and full of character. The impressive entrance hall, with its original stone flooring, immediately showcases the building's heritage. A utility room leads through to a bright conservatory overlooking the gardens, while a study and vaulted wine cellar provide additional practical space.

The generous living room features exposed stonework, an impressive fireplace and abundant natural light, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The main kitchen successfully blends traditional materials with carefully chosen contemporary touches, resulting in a space that is both functional and full of personality. An adjoining pantry and second summer kitchen make the property particularly well suited to entertaining.

The upper floors offer eight bedrooms, each individually styled and full of charm, together with a combination of bathrooms and shower rooms to comfortably accommodate...
